Leader: On this day of hope in the face of terror, we come before You God, praying with all our hearts:

ALL: You are our help in the past and our hope for years to come. Help us to find the path that leads to a peaceful world. Open our eyes and the eyes of the nations to find a different path through the disagreements of life.

Leader: In this time of story, song, and prayer, may we be re-committed to being people of peace, true peace.

讀經 Scripture: 2 Peter 1:16-21 ..... Stacey

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

今日講道內容摘要

Remembering the past helps us find our way to the future. Allowing our past as a way to witness to the goodness and mercy of God will help us live into the people that God wants us to be; to be more compassionate, loving, merciful, accepting, and justice-filled. Let our history be what inspires us to live out God's hope for us.
